START UP PACKAGE

Whether you are a solo entrepreneur or involved in a partnership, the decisions made today will affect your business for years to come. We often tell clients that legal decisions for start ups are like rocketry. When you want to send a rocket to a destination in the stars, being 1/10th of a degree off at ground level will result in being thousands of miles off later.

With this in mind, our goal in providing service to start up is not to just rubberstamp a corporation. Our goal is identify the most advantageous actions you can take today to ensure successes and avoid trouble tomorrow.
